

MAP LANDMARKS

1. Canoe The earliest form of transportation; used by Indians, fur trappers, and traders

2. Flatboat Designed by European immigrants and used to transport cargo

3. Keelboat Larger than the flatboat and built with a sloping keel for more stability in the water; was used for transporting cargo and passengers

4. Steamboat No longer dependent upon river current for propulsion, made its first successful round-trip journey in 1811

5. Towboat The modern-day river travel system; these boats push cargo-laden barges ahead of them as they travel from port to port

6. Corps Of Engineers/ McAlpine Lock and Dam Located at the Falls of the Ohio; is the Corps of Engineers maintenance station for the lower half of the Ohio River; with a drop of 35', is the deepest lock on the Ohio River

7. Mayor Andrew Broaddus Was originally built as an inland Coast Guard station, and is the only such structure remaining today; is named a National Historic Landmark; currently serves as wharf boat for the Belle of Louisville

8. Louisville Falls Fountain Given to Louisville by Mary and Barry Bingham, Sr.; is the largest floating fountain in the world

9. Colgate-Palmolive Clock Stands atop the Colgate-Palmolive factory; is the second largest clock in the world

10. Jeff Boat, Inc. Builder of barges and boats, this company has constructed both river- and ocean-going vessels

11. Water Tower Art Association Served as the Louisville Waterworks for nearly 125 years and is the finest example of classic industrial architecture in the country

12. American Commercial Barge Lines Largest towing company on the inland water ways

13. Howard Steamboat Museum Is the home of John Howard, founder of Howard Shipyards which built steamboats from the mid-1800's to the early 1900's; is the only museum of its kind in the U.S.

14. Cox Park Named after Carrie Gaulbert Cox; was home to the Belle during the reconstruction of the 4th Street wharf in 1972

15. Marine Builders Company Located in southern Indiana; builders of light barges, towing and passenger vessels

16. McBride Towing Company Louisville-based fleet of towboats; tow a variety of products up and down the Ohio River

17. Rose Island Site of a 1920's amusement park; originally named "Fern Grove"

